July 2021 Newsletter

To all members of the Black Creek Sportsman's Club:

While the weather outside is variable, with the help of Member Volunteers, we have been able to progress on a number of projects at the clubhouse. We have also had good, (though we'd like to see great) attendance at our monthly meetings. Perhaps our Summer Picnic will serve to bring us all together!

As to projects,

- We demolished the crumbling concrete along the side of the clubhouse and rebuilt the lower level wall. New concrete was poured. We hope that the rebuilt foundation and smoother concrete on the patio will last quite a while.
- A plot for an archery range has been lined out.
- The Bar area has been cleaned up and has new stools thanks to Bob Shoemaker. We've tried to de-clutter the area.
- The kitchen has been re-organized and re-cleaned. The old steel freezer cabinet was moved out and sold, making room for the stove and the floor freezer along the walls. A prep station table was built out of reclaimed steel table top, legs and plywood and now sits in the center of a more roomy kitchen space.

The calendar is included with this newsletter. We are completing work on what promises to be an awesome club Picnic! You'll want to be there! If you can help out on Saturday the 17th July, we'll be setting up for the picnic at 10 am. A list of attendees and menu are included in this mailing, for those who do not have an email address. Otherwise it will be emailed to you. If you have favorite CDs you would like to hear played during the picnic, please feel free to bring them.

We are starting our planning for the next activities including a .22 shoot and a block shoot later in the year. The planned Veteran's benefit shoot will not occur this year as we do not want to diminish it by not having proper types of ammunition available.

Membership stands at 131 members. Members have been selling or buying extra raffle tickets which has allowed improvement projects to proceed and savings to increase. Reminder: 5 raffle tickets per member required to be sold for each raffle. You may get more than 5 tickets in your mailing. Please sell them if you can, return them if you cannot.

Tickets for the third raffle are included in this mailing.

Our next meeting is Sunday July 18 at 10 am. The Club Picnic follows at noon. Please attend so your voices will be heard.

I look forward to seeing you.

With best wishes,

Don Kile, President BCSC
