II. Pledge of Allegiance

- a. The pledge was recited by the membership present.

III. Previous month's Meeting Minutes and Monthly Financial Statement were Not Read

- a. The Minutes and Financial Statement were Accepted.

IV. Report of Committees

- a. None
- b. Eric Krall mentioned that there are going to be 5 events this year. He stated that help would be needed at and prior to the events to ensure that the events went smoothly.
- c. John Greenwood also stated that help would be needed for the Fun Shoot especially Qualified Range Officers and/or very experienced shooters.

V. Old Business

- a. Don Kile stated that he had given a deposit, to the contractor that erected the new pistol enclosure, for the external repairs to the Clubhouse.
- b. Don also mentioned that we need to prioritize and finish projects that are partially completed.
- c. Willy Fields brought up the entrance to the Trap House and the difficulty many members have entering and exiting it. He has researched it and concluded that a preformed entrance would be the easiest fix.

VI. New Business

- a. Don showed the Get Well cards that can be sent to any member who is ill, recuperating from a operation, etc. He asked that to please make one of the officers aware of the member who is ill so that a card can be sent.
- b. New club jackets are available. The current jacket is no longer available and while the new design is slightly different, it was agreed that it is equally nice. Some members have mentioned that they would like to purchase one of the new jackets and Don stated that they could be ordered for $85 each.
- c. The gate, clubhouse and trap house combination will be changed March 1st. An email will be sent out with the new combination to all members who are current with their 2023 dues.
- d. The next meeting is at the Clubhouse, weather permitting.
